

Revision Techniques

Mind maps with colour
Mind maps stuck on the walls
Making information posters
Reading information silently
Reading Information aloud
Teaching someone else the content
Writing out the information
Recording your voice and listening back
Past papers timed
Past papers in exam conditions
Making double-sided flash cards
Making flash cards with pictures
Putting 'concentration music' in the background
Acting out information
Making rhymes and songs
Writing information in full, then reducing and testing and reducing and testing again
Making a quiz and testing yourself
Getting someone else to test you
Writing notes on coloured paper
Sticking flash cards around your home
Attending extra classes
Playing revision games online
Making your own revision games
Watching revision videos or documentaries

